

FRONTLINE FREESPEECH

DEFENDING THINKING, ACTING, AND SPEAKING FREELY

Thursday 2 October 2014
West African Research Center (WARC)
Street E x Leon Gontran Damas Fann
Residence, BP 5456 Dakar-Fann

Index on Censorship in association with ARTICLE 19, Senegal, invite you to a workshop to launch Frontline Freespeech, a pilot project seeking to amplify the voice of individuals under pressure.

This workshop will bring together grassroots activists alongside leading free expression campaigners to share their recent experiences of censorship, to record and map current censorship challenges and to build impactful free speech networks in Senegal.

A wide audience are expected to attend the workshop: campaigners, community leaders, network co-ordinators, human rights defenders, journalists, bloggers, artists, scholars and representatives of minority groups facing free expression challenges alongside key human rights organisations and independent media.

To RSVP for this workshop please email Khadidiatou Diaw, Khadidiatou@article19.org, +221 33 869 03 22

Registration will close on Thursday 25 September 2014

Index on Censorship is an international organisation that fights censorship, and promotes and defends the right to freedom of expression using a unique combination of journalism, campaigning and advocacy.

ARTICLE 19 is an international human rights organization that defends and promotes freedom of expression worldwide, taking its name from Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,
